

NUSTEP 2026

All talks take place at TGS Commons, 2122 Sheridan Rd, Room 140

Thursday, June 4

9:00 Coffee

9:30–10:55 Sophie Gibert, “In Defense of Moralized Theories”
Comments: Christian Coons

11:10–12:35 Mengyuan Qi, “‘It was a Different World’: How Social Structure Wrongs”
Comments: Emily Richael

Lunch

2:30–3:55 Joseph Masotti, “Coercion and Practical Identity”
Comments: Raquel Vengroff

4:10–5:35 Kyle Scott, “Strict Compliance and the Strains of Commitment”
Comments: Ben Laurence

6:30 Dinner in Evanston for speakers and organizers: Koi, 624 Davis St.

Friday, June 5

9:00 Coffee

9:30–10:55 Raimundo R. Cox, “Contractualism and Natural Law in Kant's Political Philosophy”
Comments: Gabriel Sanchez Ainsa

11:10–12:35 S. M. Love, “A Kantian Argument for the Conventionality of Property Rights”
Comments: Sean Aas

Lunch

2:30–3:55 Andréa Daventry, “Internalized Oppression and the Authentic Self”
Comments: Jule Koester

4:10–6:00 Japa Pallikkathayil “Kantian Anarchism”
Comments: Kristin Schaupp

7:00 Reception at Kyla Ebels-Duggan's home in Evanston—all are invited

Saturday, June 6

9:00 Coffee

9:30–10:55 Brookes Brown, “Grounding Fair Play”
Comments: Michael Kates

11:10–12:35 Cara Addleman, “Republicanism and Hidden Injustice”
Comments: Julie Wu

Lunch

2:30–3:55 Travis Quigley, “Political Sufficiency”
Comments: James Lindley Wilson

4:10–6:00 David Estlund, “Is Purely Structural Wrong an Illusion?”
Comments: Samuel Dishaw

6:30 Dinner in Evanston for speakers and organizers: Five & Dime, 1026 Davis St